

WELCOME TO XXX PLUMBING INC.!

Thank you for visiting our Facebook page. XXX Plumbing Inc. is a full-service plumbing company, specializing in residential remodels. Our founder and owner – J, is hands-on with every client and every job. His commitment to his customers is evident in everything he does.

J's credentials include completion of a 5 year/10,000-hour NYS apprenticeship program and certifications in OSHA and Lead Safety. Prior to establishing XXX Plumbing, J rose through the ranks at local plumbing companies as a Service Tech, Foreman and Field Superintendent managing a staff of 15 certified plumbers.

J has almost 20 years of expertise in all types of plumbing, including:

- Residential - patio homes, townhomes, and single and multi-residential houses
- Commercial - warehouses, strip malls, restaurants, and hotels
- Renovation – conversion of vintage properties (old church/school/convent)

A military veteran, husband and dad of 3, J loves fixing things. He remodeled his 1830 farmhouse and barn. In his spare time, he loves to work on vintage cars and race dirt bikes and go-carts. He believes in giving back to the community and has been known to volunteer at shelters that feed the homeless.

XXX Plumbing has a loyal following among the many clients who rely on J's knowledge, reliability and honest approach. We'd be pleased to discuss your plumbing needs - please contact J directly at #####.

We look forward to working with you!
